DELFINA DAZZLES AT ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

Senior Delfina Acosta made her final ACC Championship appearance one to remember, as she finished third.

Acosta's performance marked her best career finish at the ACC Championship. Her final day score of 68 was the lowest round among the individual tournament field and capped a tournament that saw her post a season-best three-round total of 213.

The Argentina native posted six birdies on the final day. She began by carding birdies on four of the first six holes. She then finished the front nine four-under-par (32) and closed out the tournament by shooting even par on the back nine.

HURRICANE FRESHMEN MAKING AN IMPACT

Miami freshmen Macarena Aguilera, Renate Grimstad and Filippa Moork have made an immediate impact this season, propelling the Hurricanes to a top-20 ranking for the entire spring campaign.

During the 2016-17 season, the three Hurricane rookies have competed in 90 rounds, 31 events and have posted six top-10 finishes.

In addition, Miami's freshman trio has posted an average score of 74.59, which ranks third among all NCAA Division I teams, according to Golfstat.com.

HOW THEY GOT HERE

The Hurricanes earned a second straight trip to the national tournament, as it tied for fifth at the 2017 NCAA Regional Championship in Albuquerque, N.M. on May 10.

Miami's second straight trip to the national tournament marks the first time since the 1991-92 seasons that the Hurricanes have earned back-to-back trips to nationals.

The Hurricanes battled heavy winds, which reached speeds of up to 30 miles per hour to post a final round team score of 297 to earn a spot in the national tournament for the 25th time in program history.

The Hurricanes finished the tournament with a three-round score of 888. As a team, Miami finished the final round of competition with 13 birdies.

WATCH THE BIRDIE

The Hurricanes earned a second straight bid to the national tournament in large part to their ability make birdie putts, as Miami tallied a tournament-best 39 birdies at the NCAA Regional Championship in Albuquerque, N.M.

IRON CANES

Miami senior Delfina Acosta and freshmen Filippa Moork and Renate Grimstad are the only Hurricanes to play in every round this season.
